

Code of Conduct

You are expected to act in a mature and responsible manner during all residential site-based periods of instruction. The right is reserved to dismiss from the program and send home any individual whose conduct, in the opinion of the Academic Council, is detrimental to Future Generations. The basis of this finding could include uncooperative or disruptive behavior, alcohol abuse or illegal drug use, sexual harassment, or failure to perform satisfactory academic work. Fees will not be refunded. Students sent home from a residential bear all associated costs.

Sexual harassment

Sexual harassment is defined as unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and/or verbal or physical conduct or written communications of an intimidating, hostile, or offensive nature, or action taken in retaliation for reporting such behavior, regardless of where such conduct might occur when:

- Submission to such conduct is made a term or condition of academic progress.
- Submission or rejection to such conduct is used as a basis for academic decisions affecting students.
- Such conduct has the purpose or effect of interfering with academic performance or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive academic environment.
- The difference between voluntary sexual relationships and sexual harassment are the elements of coercion, threat and/or unwanted attention that exist in a non-reciprocal relationship. Such harassment may occur between two students, or between a student and a professor, or between a student and an administrator or staff member of Future Generations.
