

1. How useful have the knowledge, skill, concept, and principles learned during your graduate studies been to your work so far?

What I appreciated most of this master's course, because all the contents of the courses are very useful, practical and replicable. I have learned so many news development and leadership concepts such as seed scale methodology, Fifth Discipline by Senge, Sen's five principles and various skills how to perform as professional level.

2. What is your community? Please describe how your community is benefiting from your involvement in this master's Degree program?

My community is Qomolangma Nature Preserve which is highest mountain in the world, ecosystem in there are very much fragile and once destroyed it difficult to recover, QNP ecosystem conservation is extremely important as it directly determine the world climate change. So conservation is not only long-term goal, but it also needs strong support from local communities. Particularly in my community strongly needed a local available professional who can be able to lead my community as just and lasting change of the community. So in order to in respond to this long-term long we design the Pendeba program which is really successful so far today. Moreover the future of the Pendeba program will be fantastic because I am locally available professional in this position for ever and will perform my duties for the Pendeba program as described in my practicum proposal. So this Master's degree directly and indirectly influences the development and conservation in my community, as I will apply what I have learned from this Master's Degree to my community.

3. Please describe your activities to support community change and conservation and how the master's degree program influences this work?

Currently, I am preparing new Pendeba training materials based on the needed of the program. I am trying to use the concept and skill which I have learned from the course. This Master's course really provides me so many new skills, concepts and principles.

4. Please list other organization which you have some kind of link? Describe your relationship.

I do not have any linkages with other INGOs, but I have so many friends who are working for INGOs, these INGOs are World Concern, Tibet Poverty Alleviation Fund, WWF Lhasa office. Switzerland Red Cross, Trance Foundation etc and UK Save the children Fund in Lhasa. I worked with The Mountain Institute for five years to implement the Qomolangma Conservation Program.
